

Young Performers Concert Student Application Form

The Young Performers Concerts, sponsored by the Atlanta Music Club, are available to students of all ages, all instruments (including voice), and all levels who wish to gain experience in public performance. Students are asked to have their music memorized for their best presentation.

These Concerts are an opportunity for students to practice correct recital etiquette as well as, develop stage poise while also being enriched at hearing other students in performance.

Atlanta Music Club sponsors these free Concerts so that all persons interested in attending a refreshing hour of beautiful music on a Sunday afternoon may do so.
