

From the Desk of
Dr. Uzee Brown, Jr., President
The Atlanta Music Club

Greetings, Atlanta Music Club Members!

It is yet another year in the historical annals of the Atlanta Music Club, and it is my pleasure to invite you, friends of the Atlanta Music Club and your musical friends from other metro Atlanta organizations to a truly special 2025-2026 season opening experience this fall. The Atlanta Music Club, in collaboration with Friendship Baptist Church is honored to present the internationally acclaimed soprano Indra Thomas and distinguished pianist Paula Grissom-Broughton in concert on Sunday, September 21, 2025, at 3:00 p.m. This inspiring performance will be held at Friendship Baptist Church, 80 Walnut Street, Atlanta GA 30314, and admission is free to the public.

Indra Thomas has graced the world's most prestigious stages, captivating audiences with her radiant voice and powerful artistry. Dr. Paula Grissom-Broughton, a gifted pianist and scholar, brings her own brilliance and depth to the program. Together, they promise an afternoon of extraordinary music that will uplift and inspire. Her recital will be a multi-genre event that will include German lieder, French chanson, opera arias, Margaret Bonds song cycle, musical theater and of course African American spirituals.

This event is not only an opportunity to enjoy world-class artistry at no cost, but also a chance to gather as a community to celebrate the power of music to connect and inspire us all. We would be delighted to welcome you to share this memorable afternoon. As you will perhaps already know, the Atlanta Music Club gratefully accepts all contributions toward its ongoing cultural events and scholarship programs. Some wonderful and exciting musical events are planned for 2025-2026, and we very much want YOU to be a part of it!

Please feel free to share this invitation widely within your networks. If you have any questions or would like to confirm your attendance, I can be reached at 678-595-8784 or uzee.brown@morehouse.edu.

We look forward to seeing you on September 21 for an afternoon of music and fellowship you won't want to miss.

Warm regards,

Uzee Brown, Jr., President

Atlanta Music Club